BILLING CODE 6690-01-P

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

Privacy Act of 1974; System of Records

AGENCY: Federal Communications Commission.

ACTION: Notice of a New System of Records.

SUMMARY: The Federal Communications Commission (FCC or Commission or Agency) proposes to add a new system of records, FCC/WCB-2, Toll Free Number Auction System, to its inventory of records systems subject to the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended. This action is necessary to meet the requirements of the Privacy Act to publish in the Federal Register notice of the existence and character of records maintained by the Agency. As its initial undertaking, the system will collect and process the bidder information necessary to administer the auction of approximately 17,000 numbers in the 833 toll free code ("833 Auction"). The FCC has established Somos, Inc., the Toll Free Numbering Administrator ("Somos"), as the auctioneer of the 833 Auction.

DATES: This system of records will become effective on October 11, 2019. Written comments on the system's routine uses are due by November 12, 2019. The routine uses will become effective on November 12, 2019, unless written comments are received that require a contrary determination.

ADDRESSES: Send comments to Leslie F. Smith, Privacy Manager, Information Technology (IT), Room 1-C216, Federal Communications Commission, 445 12th Street SW, Washington, DC 20554, or to Leslie.Smith@fcc.gov.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Leslie F. Smith, (202) 418-0217, or Leslie.Smith@fcc.gov (and to obtain a copy of the Narrative Statement that includes details of this proposed new system of records).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In an order it released on September 27, 2018, the Commission established a framework for the auctioning of certain numbers in the recently-opened 833 toll free code and appointed Somos as the auctioneer of these numbers. Toll Free Assignment Modernization, Toll Free Access Codes, WC Docket No. 17-192, CC Docket No. 95-155, Report and Order, 33 FCC Rcd 9274 (2018). This auction is an experiment in the use of competitive bidding to assign toll free numbers, and is the first time the FCC will allocate toll free telephone numbers via an auction process. In order to make sure that the 833 Auction is conducted in a fair and transparent manner, parties interested in participating in the auction (which may include "individuals" as that term is defined in the Privacy Act) will be required to disclose certain information and make certain certifications during an application process. This information will be used to determine the parties' eligibility to participate in the auction and to administer the 833 Auction, including the awarding of numbers to winning bidders. In addition, this system will also include information about parties that subsequently purchase auctioned numbers in the secondary market. This system of records includes both the 833 Auction and possible future auctions of telephone numbers that may be conducted in a similar manner.

SYSTEM NAME AND NUMBER:

FCC/WCB-2, Toll Free Number Auction System.

SECURITY CLASSIFICATION:

Unclassified.

SYSTEM LOCATION(S):

Federal Communications Commission (FCC), 445 12th Street SW, Washington, DC 20554; for the 833 Auction described in the "Supplementary Information" section above, the system will be located at Somos Corporation, 2411 Dulles Corner Park, Suite 250, Herndon, VA 20171.

SYSTEM MANAGER(S):

Wireline Communication Bureau (WCB), Federal Communications Commission (FCC), 445 12th Street SW, Washington, DC 20554;

AUTHORITY FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE SYSTEM:

Section 251(e) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, gives the FCC authority to create or designate impartial entities to administer telecommunications numbering and to make such numbers available on an equitable basis. 47 U.S.C. 251(e). Pursuant to this authority, the Commission has issued rules on the administration of toll free numbering. 47 CFR 52.101-111. These rules allow the Commission to assign toll free numbers using a variety of methods, including competitive bidding. 47 CFR 52.111.

PURPOSE(S) OF THE SYSTEM:

The purpose of this system is to assign toll free numbers in a market-based and equitable manner. It flows from and is consistent with the FCC's statutory responsibility to administer telecommunications numbering. In order to carry out this purpose, the FCC-designated auctioneer will collect information from parties that are interested in bidding for toll free numbers, will take steps to verify the parties' identities, and will determine whether the parties are eligible to participate in auctions such as the 833 Auction. Interested parties will also be required to certify that they will follow the rules that the FCC has established to ensure a fair and transparent auction process. The auctioneer will then use the information to conduct the auction and collect payments from winning bidders. In addition, this system will also include information about parties that subsequently purchase auctioned numbers in the secondary market.

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:

The categories of individuals in this system include, but are not limited to, individuals who have registered for an auction identification number, filled out an auction application form, and actually participated in toll free number auctions such as the 833 Auction. It may also include individuals who purchase auctioned numbers in the secondary market.

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

The categories of records in this system include, but are not limited to, names, physical address, email address, telephone number, and an assigned unique identifying number for each auction applicant and for individuals who purchase auctioned numbers in the secondary market.

RECORD SOURCE CATEGORIES:

The sources for the majority of information in this system of records are the individual applicants interested in participating in toll free number auctions such as the 833 Auction. In order to ensure that the auction operates in a fair manner, the auctioneer may use a commercial identity verification service to verify the identity of individuals when they initially register for the auctions.

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

In addition to those disclosures generally permitted under 5 U.S.C. 552a(b) of the Privacy Act, all or a portion of the records or information contained in this system may be disclosed to authorized entities, as is determined to be relevant and necessary, outside the FCC as a routine use pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(b)(3) as follows:

1. Public Access—In accordance with auction rules published by the Commission, the identities of auction applicants may be disclosed prior to auctions such as the 833 Auction. 4. Law Enforcement and Investigation—To disclose pertinent information to the appropriate Federal, State, or local agency responsible for investigating, prosecuting, enforcing, or implementing a statute, rule, regulation or order, where the FCC becomes aware of an indication of a violation or potential violation of civil or criminal law or regulation.

7. Breach Notification—To appropriate agencies, entities, and persons when: (a) The Commission suspects or has confirmed that there has been a breach of the system of records; (b) the Commission has determined that as a result of the suspected or confirmed breach there is a risk of harm to individuals, the Commission (including its information systems, programs, and operations), the Federal Government, or national security; and (c) the disclosure made to such agencies, entities, and persons is reasonably necessary to assist in connection with the Commission's efforts to respond to the suspected or confirmed breach or to prevent, minimize, or remedy such harm.
